MAUI HAS MANY NEEDS

Freight Rates Said To Be Excessive.

HONOLULU TRADE HURT

Lahaina Wharf Should be Extended—Cold Storage Plant at Wailuku.

WAILUKU, Maui, July 21.—The News says: It is an open secret that the Honolulu staple grocers have lost the bulk of the trade which they formerly controlled on Maui. The mere fact that much of this class of goods is imported directly to Maui from the Coast is only a partial explanation of the reason for this changed condition of affairs. The Honolulu grocers and tradesmen generally, carry many lines of goods which are not carried on Maui.
The great drawback to the Honolulu merchants is the prohibitive rate of freights between Honolulu and Maui.
The managers of the inter island steamers claim that they cannot afford to lower the rates of freight, as it hardly pays to carry freight at the present rates. But, are not the steamers killing the goose which has laid the golden egg? If special rates were made for Honolulu shippers, would not the increase in traffic more than cover the difference in freight rates?

LAHAINA WHARF.
The Government should at once do something, if possible, in the matter of extending the wharf at Lahaina, at least thirty feet. The effort to improve the landing at this wharf by removing the accumulated sands, proved a total failure. At present, it is impossible for ordinary row boats to reach the end of the wharf at low tide, and freight has to be lifted from the boats and carried on the shoulders of the boatmen, from the boat to the end of the wharf. From $1500 to $2000 would extend the wharf far enough to enable loaded boats to come alongside and unload, and an effort should be made by the government to do at least this much.

WAILUKU COLD STORAGE.
Wanted—cold storage. There is simply a bushel of money in a cold storage proposition here in Wailuku. For years, the beef on the island has been deteriorating, and it has come to that stage now, that it is simply execrable.
If the Maui Ice & Soda Company would rise to the situation, it would probably prevent the advent of a company who will come in and provide cold storage for beef and mutton.

WRAY TAYLOR MUST REPLY.
Mr. Wray Taylor, where does the fault lie, that the Islands largely import oranges, lemons and limes? The proper answer to this question will mean thousands of dollars in the pockets of small landholders. To quote Captain Cutler, "the bearing of the observation lies in the application on it."

GLANDERS ON MAUI.
Dr. Shaw, the Honolulu veterinary surgeon, was sent to Ulupalakua this week to investigate the alleged cases of glanders. He reports that the disease has not assumed an epidemic form, and will be easily checked. Only three horses at the Rose Ranch, Ulupalakua, were found to be affected. It was eight head of horses and not fifteen head, that were ordered killed at this ranch, by Dr. Garvin.

MAUI PERSONALS.
Several young gentlemen of Wailuku and Kahului gave a picnic to their friends in Iao Valley last Sunday. The affair was large attended by the young ladies and gentlemen of Wailuku and Kahului, and a very delightful day was spent among the kukui groves, by the side of the clear and rippling Iao.

Mr. J. A. Tutill, of the Gregg car-plant at Kahului, returned from Honolulu Wednesday. Work is being pushed, and the grounds of the site of the new enterprise are beginning to look like a village.

A proposition to organize a yacht club and build a boat and bathing house at Kahului is being seriously considered by some of the leading people of Maui. A meeting will soon be called to perfect plans.

W. I. Ball, formerly of the Wailuku Saloon, leaves to-day on the Claudine for Honolulu, thence to Vancouver where he will remain for some weeks, to enjoy the change of climate with the hope of improving his health.

Mr. Dickens, former U. S. Consular agent at Kahului, and manager of the Kahului store, will have charge of the wholesale liquor house soon to be established on the corner of Main and Market streets, Wailuku. He states that the supplies for his house will be shipped from the Coast direct.

Mrs. R. Berg, the wife of ex-manager Berg of the Kahului R. R. Co., is visiting Hana.

Mr. Harold Giles, of Honolulu, came over on the Claudine, to watch his real estate in Wailuku rising in value.

Mr. A. von Gravemeyer, former proprietor of the Hotel de Maui, and later in the employ of the Olua Sugar Company on Hawaii, is visiting at Lahaina.
Hon. H. P. Baldwin, John Richardson, Esq., Surveyor Hugh Howell and Deputy Sheriff Wittrock were among the returning kamaainas on Wednesday's Claudine.

Mr. H. P. Walton, manager of the Peelless Preserving Paint Company, Honolulu, is visiting Maui this week to look after the interests of his company on Maui.

KILLED BY A FALL.

Ah Tim, a Makawao Chinese, Crushed to Death by a Horse.

(Special Correspondence.)

MAUI, July 21.—Ah Tim, a Chinese employee of Awana & Co. of Makawao, was thrown from his horse and killed on the 17th. The man left the store with chickens and eggs bound for the Olanda residence of J. B. Castle. When opposite the ruins of the old Maunaloa Seminary, his horse, a sorrel colt, began to act badly and finally threw himself backwards crushing the Chinese under him.

The man was rendered insensible but the horse soon got to his feet again and ran a half a mile until stopped by the Japanese yardman of Maunaloa Seminary at Mrs. H. G. Alexander's premises. The Japanese recognizing the horse, telephoned to Awana's store and soon the injured man was conveyed to his home—where he died the next morning from his injuries.

END OF COURT TERM.

Three Murderers Convicted—One to be Hanged in Hilo.

HILO, July 21.—The Herald says:
The July term of court, Judge Little, presiding, closed at Honokaa on Tuesday last with three convictions of men who had taken human life.
Arthur Meyners, a white man who killed Gus Schwartz in cold blood, was convicted of manslaughter in the second degree and was sentenced to six years at hard labor. The minimum sentence was five years.

Nahalea, a Hawaiian charged with killing a Japanese who he believed to be intimate with his wife, was convicted of murder in the second degree and sentenced to life imprisonment.

Yohara, charged with killing a fellow countryman, was convicted of murder in the first degree and sentenced to be hanged in Hilo jail yard on September 21 between 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. The evidence in this case was entirely circumstantial.

BUSINESS BOOMS IN KULA, MAUI

New Chinese Stores in the Corn and Potato
Country.

(Special Correspondence.)

MAUI, July 21.—Four new Chinese stores have been established in Kula during the past week—two in Kookaa, one in Kamaole and the other in Waihouli. Business must be about to boom in the corn and potato country, for there are five or six stores there already.

During the evening of the 20th a most enjoyable dancing party was given in Spreckelsville Hall.

Commissioner of Public Lands J. K.
Brown has been inspecting Government lands in Makawao during the week.

On Thursday afternoon, the 19th, the Thursday Club met at Mrs. W. S. Nic-oll's, Hamakuaapoko. This is the last meeting for some weeks, as the ladies think a midsummer intermission is desirable.

Dr. R. McKibbin is a guest of his brother and sister at Puuomalei, Makawao.

Mrs. Fred. Carter is at Mrs. Bailey's, Kawaepae resort.

Miss Muther and Catherine and Lorrie Smith are visiting at the H. A. Baldwin's, Hamakuaapoko.

CAPTAIN MEHRTEN DEAD.

Well-Known Honolulu Passes Away After a Long Illness.

Captain John A. Mehrtens, for many years senior captain of the police department and one of the best known figures about Honolulu, died on Saturday morning of hemorrhage of the lungs. Captain Mehrtens had been ill for some time, but his death came rather unexpectedly for he had been getting better seemingly till the crisis came.
Attorney Charles Creighton had sat up with the captain the night before his death and had left only a few hours before he passed away, the captain then being much improved, apparently, and in good spirits. A short time afterwards he fell into a deep sleep from which he never awoke.

Captain Mehrtens came to the Islands from California about twenty-three years ago. He was on the police force at the time of the revolution of 1893 and was a prominent figure at that period. He was one of the founders of the Coyne-Mehrtens Furniture Company. He was universally popular. Of late he had been living in the lane opposite the Chinese church on Emma street. He leaves a wife and several children.

The funeral took place yesterday and was under the auspices of Mystic Lodge, Knights of Pythias, of which Captain Mehrtens was a prominent member.

Numbering The Streets.

The numbering of houses about the city is to be commenced as soon as sample numbers are received from the Coast. The numbers will be of bronze and aluminum. They will be placed on the street line, wherever possible on the gate posts and will all be of uniform size and shape. No restrictions will be placed on the placing of numbers on the doors of houses by the owners and these may be made of any material and may be as plain or as ornate as the owners desire. A street map is to be prepared to show how the numbers run so that any misplacing may be corrected.

For White Labor.

Every paper and every planter on the island should join in the movement suggested by the Advertiser, to try to secure white labor for the sugar plantations. A successful effort to do this would solve several knotty questions, and would keep the money which is now shipped monthly to Japan and China, in the Islands. It will eventually become absolute necessity to employ white labor on the plantations, and the sooner it is inaugurated, the better it will be for all interested.—Maui News.

"Some of the most successful men in politics," he said, thoughtfully, "have been those who have had little to say." Naturally she was indignant.
"There you go!" she exclaimed. "Always doing your best to discourage women."

Hives are a terrible torment to the little folks, and to some older ones.
Doane's Ointment never fails. Instant relief and permanent cure. At any chemist's, 50 cents.
